Who We Are

Since its founding in 2003, The Advocacy Foundation has become recognized as an effective provider of support to those who receive our services, having real impact within the communities we serve.

We are currently engaged in several community and faith-based collaborative initiatives, having the overall objective of eradicating all forms of youth violence and re-vitalizing entire communities. In carrying-out these initiatives, we have adopted the evidence-based strategic framework developed and implemented by the Office of Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP).

The stated objectives are:

- (1) Community Mobilization;
- (2) Social Intervention;
- (3) Provision of Opportunities;
- (4) Organizational Change & Development;
- (5) Suppression [of unlawful activities].

Moreover, it is our most fundamental belief that in order to be effective, prevention and intervention strategies must generally be Community Specific, Culturally Relevant, Evidence-Based, and Collaborative.

For a detailed description of the Violence Prevention and Intervention programming we employ in implementing our ComeUnity Redevelopment framework please visit our website at:

About The Tournament

The annual golf event helps us meet, interact with, relax, and have fun with all the key stakeholders in the local Juvenile Justice arena.

This tournament in particular helps us develop the camaraderie needed to forge the close ties that bind the professional relationships, not just between our group and the community, but for all the constituency, creating the fundamental strengths needed to begin to replace "Risk-Factors" with "Protective-Factors", even among professionals, relationships so vital to ComeUnity ReEngineering and Restorative Justice. It fosters not only the spirit of Jurisprudence, but also of Holistic Community Health across a myriad of professional, community and faith-based disciplines, all working in harmony for the greater community good. From this experience, we work toward goals with diligence, integrity and enthusiasm made possible only through the trust and integrity of our progressive relationships. This enables us to more effectively and collectively "Advocate" for our beloved communities.

The Foundation welcomes you to participate in this major fun-filled endeavor to "kick-start" and lay the cornerstone for our precious community partnerships.

All proceeds benefit The ComeUnity ReEngineering Initiative, The Adolescent Law Group, and The Restorative Justice Project of The Advocacy Foundation*.

* Ten percent of all event proceeds are donated to the Penllyn Home Builders Association. (Penllyn, PA)
